Affidavit of Common Law Marriage

Instructions
A common law spouse of an eligible Colorado State University (CSU) employee may enroll in medical, dental, vision and life insurance as a dependent. Employee benefits are governed in part by the CSU eligibility provisions of the CSU Benefits Plan (Cost Share) and other governing documents including the Faculty and Admin Pro Privileges and Benefits Summary, HR Manual, and other written directives. The following guidelines also apply.

The employee and common law spouse must both complete and sign this Affidavit of Common Law Marriage. A notary must witness both signatures. The completed, notarized affidavit must be completed and returned to Human Resources within 30 days of the date of hire or the date of the common law marriage, whichever is later, in order to add the common law spouse to coverage.

Affidavit
Upon signing this form, we, the undersigned attest to the following:

1. I, ________________________________, am currently a benefits eligible (CSU) employee and my spouse, ________________________________, desires to be covered as an eligible dependent pursuant to the rules and procedures of the Colorado State University Benefit Plans;

2. We have lived together continuously, in Colorado, as husband and wife from ________________ to present;
   (Beginning Date)

3. We hold ourselves out to the community as husband and wife, consent to the marriage, cohabit and have the reputation in the community as being husband and wife;

4. We are eighteen years of age or older, or if between the ages of sixteen and eighteen, have obtained appropriate parental or guardian consent;

5. There is no legal impediment to our marriage. A legal impediment includes, but is not limited to, a prior marriage of either party that has not been legally terminated by death or divorce, the parties are the same sex, or the parties are closely related and would be prohibited under state law from marrying;

6. We understand that a common law marriage in the State of Colorado, is valid for all purposes, the same as a ceremonial or civil marriage and can only be terminated by death or divorce.

Acknowledgements
We represent that the information contained herein is true and complete to the best of our knowledge, and we are willing to provide supporting documentation, including a court order recognizing this as a legal marriage.
